Judy Marlinski
Fidelity Investments
President, Fidelity Institutional Asset Management®

Judy Marlinski is president of Fidelity Institutional Asset Management®, Fidelity's distribution and client service organization dedicated to meeting the needs of consultants and institutional investors, such as defined benefit and defined contribution plans, endowments, and financial advisors. She brings more than 30 years of investment experience to this role.

Previously, Ms. Marlinski was head of Investment Product Solutions and Innovation, with responsibility for product strategy, development, management, and advocacy for Fidelity's investment lineup. From 2011 to 2016, Ms. Marlinski was president of Fidelity International Japan, FIL Investments Limited, and FIL Securities K.K. During her five-year tenure, assets under management grew from $37 billion to $58 billion. Ms. Marlinski's career at Fidelity International began in 2003 when she moved to Japan for the role of chief operating officer, Investment Management. In 2006, she became head of Product Management, where she led Fidelity to become the largest foreign retail asset manager in Japan. Ms. Marlinski joined Fidelity in 1986.

Ms. Marlinski received a bachelor of science degree in business management and marketing from Cornell University, and earned her M.B.A. with honors from Boston University. She was a member of the Management Investor Forum of Japan's Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry; the U.S.-Japan Council Business Advisory Board; and the President's Council of Cornell Women.
